

Workshop

on

Violated Earth - Violent Earth

Revisiting causes and effects of human's misdemeanor and nature's power

Anticipated Result

Wake-up call to all of us – A call for action to strengthen social ethics as well as the self-regulatory capacity of life on earth.

Date

March 20 to March 22, 2019

Venue

TUM Science and Study Center at Raitenhaslach

Initiated by

European Academy of Sciences and Arts (EASA), represented by the Institute for Advanced Studies on Earth System Preservation (IESP)

and

Emeriti of Excellence Project of the Technical University of Munich

Financially supported by

Bavarian Ministry of Environment and Consumer Protection (StMUV)

Schweisfurth Foundation

Bayerisches Staatsministerium für
Umwelt und Verbraucherschutz

SCHWEISFURTH
STIFTUNG

Workshop Format

Based on the Dahlem-Conference-Model characterized by the following key-words: number of participants (scientists, entrepreneurs, administrators and politicians) limited to 28; four introductory speeches at the beginning; extensive time for discussion (breakout groups and plenum); formulation and resolution of a message to the world.

Itinerary (preliminary)

March 20, 2019

- 9:00 Departure of a shuttle bus from Munich (optional)
- 12:00 Registration and Lunch
- 14:00 Presentation and discussion of introductory lectures
- 19:00 Dinner and causal get-together

March 21, 2019

- 9:00 Session of breakout groups
interrupted by coffee-breaks and lunch
- 17:00 Meeting of the rapporteurs appointed by the group members;
free time for all other participants
- 19:00 Dinner and causal get-together

March 22, 2019

- 9:00 Plenum session
 - Presentation of the rapporteur's reports followed by discussion
 - Presentation of the first draft of the "Message to the World"
 - Discussion and resolution
- 12:30 Lunch
- 14:00 Guided tour through the former Monastery and Cathedral (optional)
- 16:00 Departure of the shuttle bus to Munich

Financial matters

The participants are expected to cover travel expenses from own sources. However, food and lodging as well as local transportation will be provided by the organizers of the workshop.

Recommended Literature

Wilson E.O. (1993). Is Humanity Suicidal? New York Times Magazine, May 30.

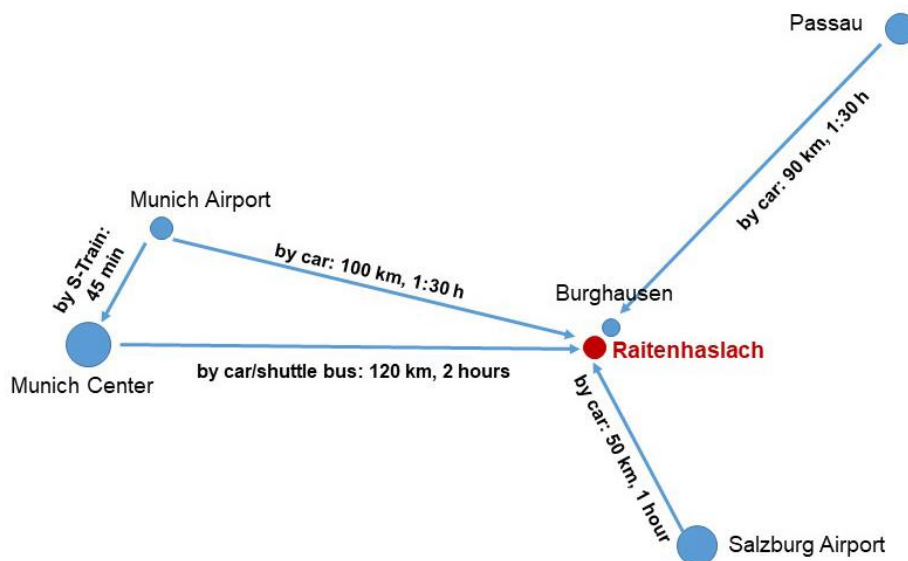

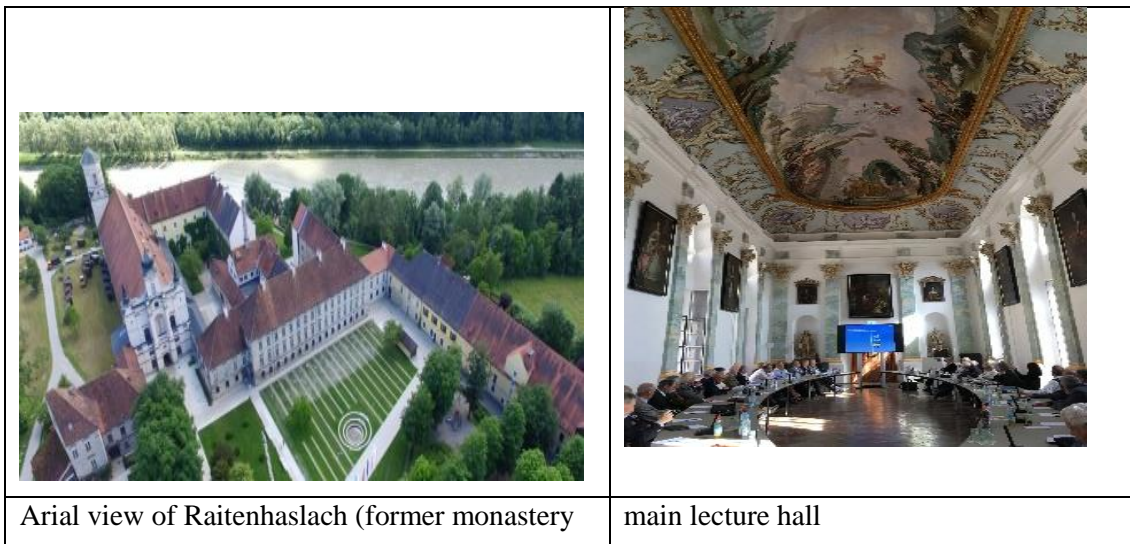

Lovelock J. (2007). The Revenge of Gaia. Penguin Books, London UK

Come On! Report of the Club of Rome (2018). E.U.Weizsäcker und A. Wijkmann (eds). Springer Science and Business Media

Harari YN (2014). Sapiens: A brief history of Humankind. Random House, London, UK

Harari YN (2015) Homo Deus – A Brief History of Tomorrow. Harvill Seker, London, UK

Raoul A. Weiler and Kris Demuyne (2017) Food Scarcity Unavoidable by 2100 – Impact of Demography and Climate Change. <http://www.globethics.net/gel/10848704>

how to get to Raitenhaslach